Director’s Report: Mike Eyster - Below is a chart that illustrates rate increases at the Health Center for the past 10 years. It has been my experience that a steady rate increase averaging around 3% each year is helpful in preventing spikes in the rate increase for future years. You can see that rate increases for the last two years were 1%. That is in part the reason for the $4 rate increase proposed for 2015 – 16. Please keep in mind that if the new service/business model is adopted, we will move away from the health fee model of funding the health and counseling centers.

Updates:

A. Sexual Violence Prevention Week Involvement: Special Guest – Jessica Sarontay
   April is Sexual Assault Awareness month. There will be numerous events throughout the month and several set up for the last week.
   • Contact Michele at the Women’s Center if you’d like to help. Is there an event you’d like to host? Is there anything she can do to support you?
   • At the minimum SHAC will be showing up with their Hoodies and will walk in Take Back the Night on April 30th. SHAC will also invite other UHC staff to join them.
   • Pepper spray as a safety measure was discussed. There are pros and cons and we did not get into a longer discussion at this time.
   • Empowerment based Sexual Assault Defense is being offered

B. Wellness Center—Jessica Daniel
   • Getting good feedback via surveys and focus groups. Will report out data at a later meeting.

C. International Student Outreach—Ale met with AEI professional staff, Tony Cipolle, to discuss opportunities for reaching out to AEI students regarding UHC services.

D. Valentines hearts will be cut out prior to our next SHAC meeting at 2:15. If you can come please join us. We will have construction paper and some scissors. If you have scissors please bring them if you can.

Anne Marie Levis -Business Model Naming Options

• Group discussion regarding the name “Duck Care vs UO Care”. The majority of SHAC members preferred the “UO Care” title.
• Anne Marie presented several mark-ups of potential designs. SHAC reviewed each one and the group discussed preferences of font and interpretation of potential symbols for the logo

Adjourned meeting early and appointed members stayed to discuss upcoming events and who would take the lead.
